“ My deepest condolences to the Leger and Chevis family. Mrs. Aline was truly a joy to be around. During the time she resided at Trinity Villa Apts., she brought with her the history of "the good old days" in St.Landry Parish. She was able to provide the residents with firsthand knowledge of what life was like at the beginning of the 21st century. She will be missed.

“ My memories of Aline are filled with warmth and love as I recall being a small child in my grandparents (Bernard and Elmire Ray) home in Lewisburg. She was a bright star, always kind and full of life. How wonderful that she spent 98 years with her family and friends and now she is in her glory with the Lord.
