“ Uncle Wofford, I always considered it an honor to have you as my godfather. Thank you for being a living witness to the Glory of God. I will carry your gentle spirit in my heart. You always had a kind word of guidance, that infectious smile, and the most heartfelt hugs. You were such a pillar of strength to your family. Although our hearts are heavy and hold deep sadness, it also holds the blessings of a well loved life. Your creator can look upon you with love and say...well done good and faithful servant.

My uncle was an awesome man. He said the rosary for his sister funeral. So many people ask me, who was the man that said the rosary. They said we never heard anyone say a rosary like that, they loved it. I wish I would have recorded him. He will be missed. Love you Uncle wofford
