“ To the Family of my Uncle Amos, I send my deepest sympathy. I always loved going to my Aunt Mildred's house. Uncle Amos was the kindest man I've know. He walked so quietly, so peaceful. Always bringing items to the kitchen from his garden. He always had a dog or two gentle and quiet as he was. He was a loving, gentle and funny man. Always telling about the funny things our Aunt did, but he always went along with it. My heart aches and I will miss you Uncle Amos. May your soul rest in peace.
