“ I just want to send condolences because I read your loved one's obituary. I'm sorry for your loss. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold them can be most difficult to bear. The Bible however holds out a great hope. John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment."
