“ My condolences to her son and her family. I knew her from trail riding and she was a force to be reckoned with. She lived her life to the fullest her way and I admired her for that. She will be tearing up the heavens with her sassy self. She will be watching over her son whom she loved dearly. Will be keeping him lifted in prayer as he continues without his much beloved mother.

“ I'm sorry for the loss of your dear and precious Anita Faye, you are not alone and may you find encouragement from God's word the holy bible at Psalms 147:3: "He is healing the brokenhearted ones; And is binding up their painful spots."
May you be comforted and have peace during this difficult and painful time as you draw close to the true God, Jehovah, in prayer.
(James 4:8: Psalms 83:18)
