“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Anna Mae.... I've known her my whole life and I have such fond memories of her..... not only in the store but walking through and learning about all of the plants that she grew in her yard and greenhouse..as well as the gardens and greenhouses of Sis and Grandma Elda.... These three woman enriched my love of Horticulture from a young age and to this day as the Director of Parks and Greenspace Management it continues today...Three woman who were businesswomen,Horticulturist and servants of God..... Rest in Peace ❤️
