“ To each of the Johnson/Douglass and related families my husband and I wish to offer our deepest sympathies in the loss of your loved one.

She is at rest with your dad and other love ones and friends. We are so happy to have visited with her on the day of your dad's funeral. She even knew who I was.

Sorry we can't be with you today due to the death in my husband's family. Our prayers are with you. The celebration of her life will be as beautiful as the one for James. God bless and keep each of you.

“ We met the family back in the early 80’s. We used to go visit Mrs Anna at her home in Whiteville. Very warm, loving and nurturing people. The whole family was so sweet to us. We visited again before Mr. Johnson died a few years back and they still had that loving spirit. To her surviving children, we are so sorry for your great loss and you have our deepest sympathy.

“ Mrs. Anna Johnson was a cheerful giver in the community and always welcome family and friends to her home. She was a mother, not only to her children, but to the children in the community. I am saddened to hear about her death, but I believe our loss is God’s gain into his Kingdom. The family have our sincere condolences.

A Tribute to Aunt Anna Dell Johnson

(Endearingly called Aunt Tuut)

We are better because you lived.

Better at modeling unconditional love and unwavering support, Better at being a genuine friend, sister-in-law, aunt, sister, mother, and wife,

Better at extending hospitality to family and friends,

Better at taking pride in making a house a home, and Better at investing time to prepare healthy meals.

You were the 'Pioneer Lady' of the family.

You were the 'Anna Dell' of sweet potato pie.

You were the wife and mother we strive to emulate.

We are better because your 'Dash' phase of life was used to honor and serve God's will.

Thank you for fulfilling His purpose during your earthly walk.

We are better because we knew and loved you.

Our parents often said, "Don't forget where you came from."

Thank you for living a life that created enjoyable visits to your home that makes it pleasant for us to remember where we came from.

Just sitting here thinking of you and reflecting on how blessed I was to have you in my life as my mom. I will forever keep your loving memories in my heart. Your Loving Son Darrel
