“ I remember when I was a young child back in the 1960s. My grandmother would tell me that it was time for his bus to drop him off from work. We lived across the street so I would run outside and look for him. When I caught sight of him I would run as fast as my 5 year old legs could run and jump into his arms. He would literally throw me up in the air so high I thought I was flying! To this day that is one of my favorite childhood memories. Thank you Antoine. May you rest in peace until we meet again.
