“ Just so at a lost for words. This was a 1st grade classmate a great friend... a heck of a teammate and a brother from another mother. Most called him Keith... Author.. but we knew him as Hobbie..The one and only. We gonna miss you brother and know you a never be forgotten. Thanks for the laughs and the good times.. God bless your next journey and give your family the strength to carry on. My brother you a never be forgotten. With all sincerity my condolences.. Rest in peace and it's nothing but love.. “ My deepest condolences Lou. I pray for comfort, peace & love for you & your family. This is tough but GOD knows just what to do for us in trying times. He saw you through before & he will see you through now. We saw each other through soo many situations & if I can be there for you I will as I have always been. If not in flesh in spirit. God is awesome & he never lets us down. I love you Lady & be strong & take care of yourself. Camella Carrier.
