I was saddened by the news of Atrice passing! Then I realized the calming spirit that I wanted to remember her by. “ We as celebrate one of our pillars of the family. We know God call her home in His Glory. I am thankful all of our great memories, just the good truly. My heart is divided in two: happy and sad because her earth present is going but her memories will forever live. In My heart, she will live on. To her mother, sister's and children, you are not alone your Castille family is here for you all. Much love, Vickie
