“ With deepest sympathy to the Parrish family in your loss, this song: Home Over The Mountain, is a tribute to Mrs. Beanna: I started on this journey. It seems like a long time ago. I thought it would be easy, but Lord I did not know. You see I'm holding my position, until it's safe for me to climb. I've got a home over the mountain and I must get there on time. When traveling days are over, I'm going home to take my rest. I'm going to sit down beside King Jesus. I'll be home and forever blessed. I'm going where the wicked shall cease from troubling and the weary shall be at rest. I've got a home over the mountain and I must get there on time. I'll keep climbing up the mountain. I'll keep climbing round by round. I'll let nothing, nothing stop me, for surely I am heaven bound. You see I'm holding my position, until it's safe for me to climb. I've got a home over the mountain and I must get there on time.

“ We are very sorry for the passing of your loved one. You are in our prayers. Revelation 21 verse 4 states: And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
