“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Burvick George: I share in the loss of a great man whom none of us will ever forget. Burvick was always willing to help someone in any way he could and his reputation as a friend has never come into question. The "B" in "Big B" not only stood for "Burvick" but also for "Brother" for Burvick was the kind of person who automatically treated you like family and always had an humbling spirit, a heart of gold, while being known as a giant in the community. You could always count on Burvick to protect you from harm, counsel and advise you, and always offer you love and support. Thank you Burvick for all of the safe nights of entertainment you provided me with, and most of all, thank you for being my friend, "Big B".
