“ Dr. Darlene S. Brown & Family:

We extend our heartfelt condolences to you and your Family. May you find comfort in the knowledge that your sister lived a life of purpose and is now with the Lord and may that same Jesus grant each of you the strength to continue her legacy of faith and good works. Cherish the indelible imprint in your memories. It is our prayer that you find comfort in knowing that your lives have been enriched by having shared your life's journey through and with her. Our prayers and thoughts are with you always.

“ I am so sorry about the 3 Chilo losses within a year's time for Ignatius family (Ms. Marie, Ms. Mary, and now Ms. Betty). Also, other members of Ms. Betty's family if similar circumstances exist. We concentrate on her right now for God to graciously receive her to his heavenly home. I went to the visitation early this AM before family or guest book arrived to express this. God bless all of you and heal your hearts.
