“ I recall my first encounter with Betty was in the front office of Holy Ghost Catholic Church. What a friendly, welcoming "face" of the Church family. Nothing of her personality changed as we became more acquainted-- consistent warm smile, loving heart, prayerful spirit and Christian integrity. Family, the Lord is our strength. Prayers and hope, love and grace to each of you.

*Will truly miss my true friend. God joined us together back in the 80s. Both our name is Betty, what a coincidence. We were meant to be friends, we'll more like sisters. Sending my heartfelt sympathy to Ike, Brad, Annie, Anitiria, Terria, and the greatgrand girls. Hang in there as Betty would always say. With all my love and the love of God, God bless all of you.
