“ Oh my, where do I start. My heart is heavy yet I have so many memories of the times we shared that cause me to smile. I met Bell when I first arrived at Fort Polk, La. and we spent every day together, that was 39 years ago. The military took us in different directions and sometimes the same direction but we always kept in touch. We did so many things together including meeting each other families. She will be missed but never forgotten. I'm so grateful that she came to visit me a few months ago. To the family, look to The Most High for comfort. Rest In Peace my forever friend.

“ My deepest sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Bel Simmons. Our relationship with her family extends back many many years. My father(Earl Guidry) and her grandfather (Joe "Mr. Big" Gibson) were best friends. We knew and grew up with this family. Such fond memories of all the Gibsons, Dunbars and Simmons. RIR Bel from the Guidry family.

“ I knew Beverly over 30 years. Over those 30 years we became my Sister and I her Brother, which was exactly how we greeted one another. We talked, texted or emailed one another very often every week. My Heart has a large number hole in it now that no one will ever be able to feel. I know at the same time she is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and trying to run things in Heaven- lol. Until we meet again my Beautiful, Wise, Confidant and Sister, I will always Love You. Your Brother Kevin

Beverly was the most outspoken person I have ever met. We became friends in Jr High and remained friends our entire lives. Although i have moved away, when I did see her, Bell always had something impactful to say to me. Good or bad it always seem to be in my best interest. God took a good one! Joseph Ventress
