“ Buddy we were just sharing xmas and you hugged your mom tight goodbye to return to Baton Rouge Sunday! Little did I know that in less than 24 hours God would call you home. Your dad and I were blessed beyond measure with two beautiful children! Although my heart is shattered into fragments right now. it gives me comfort in knowing you were so loved by so so many and they too share in our sorrow. God doesn't make mistakes and for 39 years I was able to love you as a mom loves her child with all her being. God will heal us and we will laugh and hug again!!!! Your forever loving momma

Brandon 8-20-86 was the day you came into my life as my sibling. I enjoyed every moment we shared together. When people saw me they knew you wasn't too far behind. You was always the same every day with the same smile that will not be forgotten. The day 12-29-25 was the worse day of my entire life because you was just here with us for Christmas. My heart broke that day, my soul vanished and I was extremely numb. I know you're in a good place with God but I'm really and truly hurt and emotional typing this All i want is my brother back! I'm alone out here now. I have to be strong for our parents, your niece and your sons. Trust me they are hurting by this but I have them. I love you Lil/Big brother always.

Mrs. Dalton, I am so very sorry for your loss. I did not know Brandon personally, but I went to the Raceatrac where he worked everyday. He was always cordial, inviting and friendly. He was a quiet, gentle giant of a man. He knew what I was coming for when he saw me enter the door. He would say, "I got'cha." When I forgot something, he said don't worry about that, "I got'cha.! He worked hard, I know and was the same everyday. Drama free when he was working. I appreciated that. It was today that I learned he is no longer with us. Racetrac has a wreath hanging on the door in his memory. What a shock ! I never knew his name. I call him Big Boss Man. May he rest in peace. I pray for you and his family that the Lord Jesus will comfort and keep you all in this sad, shocking time.
