Catherine Lawson Jones

"Ms. Cat"

May 2, 1935 – December 23, 2014

"Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take but by the moments that take our breath away."....

Ms. Cat Jones was a phenomenal woman that lived passionately and enjoyed life to its fullest. Her love for Keith, Kelly, Kel, Stanley, Trevor, Charlene, and Christine was her life. Her sister, Lydia, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends gave her bliss. Her passion in life was St. Landry Parish Southern University Alumni, Delta Sigma Theta, Inc., camping, and her family rooted talent for fishing.

Cat found peace at home, December 23, 2014. She joined her parents' Isiah and Emily Lawson; siblings, Wally, Harold, Ann and Delia in her final resting place in Cedar Hill Cemetery in Washington, Louisiana.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ My family would love to extend our sympathies to the Jones Family. Cat was an awesome lady who loved her family, SU and Delta Sigma Theta. I knew Cat through the alumni as each year when it was time to donate money to the federation, at the conference, Cat was so excited to make her donation for her chapter, which was always several thousand dollars. I have personally missed Cat for several years now and I would like to say rest in peace soror. No more pain nor suffering.

“ Condolences, with deepest sympathy, to the family of Catherine Lawson Jones. I did not personally know Ms. Jones, but I do know the pain of losing a loved one in death. I also know that the creator of life, Jehovah God, did not purpose for humans to die. In fact, his purpose was for humans to live forever in a paradise earth (Genesis 2:15-17). His purpose has not changed. God hates death and calls it an enemy (1 Corinthians 15:26). He has promised a time when there will be no more mourning and no more death (Revelation 21:4). He has also made provisions for us to see our dead loved ones again through the resurrection hope - for he promises "there is going to be a resurrection" (Acts 24:15). Since he is a God who "cannot lie" (Titus 1:2), we are assured of his promises. Find the answer to many questions at www.jw.org. May the God of comfort provide your family a measure of comfort during this time of your loss (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement during times like this. May the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3) comfort you.

“ Words are inadequate to express my love and appreciation for my great friend Cat Jones! She was a Hall of Fame supporter of Southern University! Nationally, she raised more scholarship dollars, through the St. Landry Southern Alumni Chapter than most that I know of! My thoughts and prayers are with Keith, Kelley, Mrs. Simmons and the entire family! Long live the memory and legacy of on Catherine Lawson CAT Jones!!
