“ Sooner or later, everyone is hit by some type of tragedy.

The Bible says:

“The swift do not always win the race, nor do the mighty win the battle, nor do the wise always have the food, nor do the intelligent always have the riches, nor do those with knowledge always have success, because time and unexpected events overtake them all.”—Ecclesiastes 9:11.

The question, then, is not whether you will face adversity but how you will react when you do. For instance: You have lost a loved one in death?

The Bible can help you not only to cope when tragedy strikes but also to have a solid basis for hope. Romans 15:4
