“ Sue no words could express my sorry for you and your family. Every since I saw it on the news of Charine's missing my heart has been heavy. Just thankful that the family got to put closure and she was found in spite of how heartbreaking. Praying for peace and strenght for you all and will continue to send up prayers. The time that we were in touch I know how much you loved your babies. God help the whole Young famil. Love, Sister in Texas.

“ I would like to extend my condolences to your family, I am so sorry for this tragic loss. It is obvious that Charine lived a life filled with love and she will be remembered by those close to her, and by "The God of all comfort". May you yourselves take comfort in the Bible's promise at Revelations 21:4 that there will come a day when, God "will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will suffering not pain nor outcry be anymore". When that time comes, sad occasions such as these will be a thing of the past and we will rejoice with our loved ones again.
