September 5, 1949 - December 3, 2024

A native of Lafayette, Louisiana and a resident of Opelousas, La. passed away on Tuesday December 3, 2024 in Opelousas, Louisiana.

Peanut was a jack of ALL TRADES. There was nothing that he could not craft with his hands. He baked any cake or pastries you could think of and it would melt in your mouth. He was a gentle soul and a great person to be around. Time would fly by when he was in your presence, with you not wanting to leave because his company was so enjoyable. He will so greatly be missed by everyone who knew him. When the song said HARD WORKING HANDS AT REST, Peanut's hands were the model picture.
