“ Mom, you were the absolute greatest being this world could ever offer me. I think about you everyday about how you're not here with me to wake me up in the morning with your singing or loud laugh(: I miss you so much and love every bit of you. Thanks for everything!

“ My beloved childhood friend. It feels like just yesterday, you & Don called me and I could here the laughter in the background. Wow, you're home. I know God has found favor in you and your mom is happy to hold her child. Mark, June & Charlene, you'll never be alone. Your family and friends will always help you, and laugh, in cherishing the memories of you sister.
