“ I Really didn't know you outside of your pops photos little cousin. But I felt the pain when I listened to the other family members tell the stories about you and now I wish I would have known you better. As I learn from your aunty, Larry Jr , Larry Sr and even my brother Steve, we can never predict the future or when God calls us home. But I know that you are loved by this entire family and as an angel now, I pray that you continue to look down upon us and forgive is for not spending more time with you. I love you.
