Conner's parents were blessed with the fact of knowing that he was a fighter and had he survived he would have been a faithful young man, an avid fisherman like his father, deeply cared for by his mother, and a fisher of men with his church family.

He will be fondly remembered by his father, Darian Joseph and mother, Brandie Thomas Joseph; paternal grandparents, Christopher and Shondell Joseph; maternal grandparents, Randall and Catherine Thomas; great grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends. “ To Bro Darian & Sis. Brandie Thomas, While I know the loss of a child who is taken away so soon is surely the hardest to accept.. I pray that the comfort and strength that God has given to me is pass on to the both of you during this time.
Love you both..
Sincerely. Sis. Betsy Isaac
