“ I am at a complete loss, my dear best friend Crystal. It just still doesn't seem real. Crystal & I became friends way back in headstart & remained close up until her earthly departure. I can honestly say that there is noone that knows me as well as she did. Sometimes we would get on the phone & just talk for hours and hours. How i will deeply miss those conversations.

We've shared so many memories together both good and bad. And oh so much laughter as anyone can tell you of our years together in school. We never ever judged one another, instead we just tried to be a safe haven for each other. My girl life will never be the same without you in it. I pray that you are at peace with your mom. Love you always my Best Friend
