“ There are so many things I could say about Cyrus Auzenne, the man. Many people reading this already know you were unapologetically Cyrus. You said what you meant, and you stood by what you felt, even if you stood alone.

Some never knew you as our dad. You taught us values, hard work, respect, kindness, to be a person of our word. The list could go on forever. You made many sacrifices for our family, sometimes at the expense of yourself. You gave us all of what we needed, and some of what we wanted. Our dad taught us what it was like to be loved. He was patient, kind, and understanding. Before you closed your eyes, I was able to tell you a lot of what I wanted you to know. You did good daddy. Your goal for us was to break the poverty cycle. You did that!! You made sure we finished college to obtain that goal. Take your rest knowing that we are going to be okay. Time will NEVER heal this hole I feel. I take comfort in knowing you are no longer in pain. It was a privilege to be there for you to the end. Job well done!! Always in my heart. I love you ❤️

“ I did not know Mr. Auzenne personally, but I do know his daughter Michelle. When a loved one transitions that leaves a space in the family that will always be there. Hold on to the beautiful memories, lessons he taught and advice he left you all. Those keep you when that hole gets bigger at times. My condolences to the family. May GOD be with you and grant you comfort and strength to keep you.
