“ When I was a kid, he was the greatest story teller. He made it so interesting you would hang on every word. I couldn't wait until Cousin Daniel came for a visit, or to fix Uncle Tan's car. LOL! He gave me my first camera, for my high school graduation. About a year later, he made it possible for me landing my 2nd job, which was better paying than the first. He thought enough of me to have me be a Godparent to Jude. When I got married, he gave me a beautiful set of Pear Handle Steak Knives. He was my mechanic until I moved away. His shoes was very hard to fill. He is a very generous and caring person that I'm very proud to call family.

I will always remember Mr. Daniel. He would come to bingo in Grand Coteau at St. Ignatius and on my 16th BD he gave me a $2.00 bill which one year older than I was born. I still have that bill today. There was never a time you would meet him and he say "How's it going cousin?" May soul rest in peace. I'm sorry I'm not there, I just found out about it.

“ My late father, Leon "Red" Brisco Sr. counted him as a trusted friend and mechanic. The 8 of us Brisco children grew up with his 8 while attending Holy Ghost and OC schools. My prayers and condolences are offered to his family and friends.
