“ Mr. Darrel
I have known and respected you as a neighbor and friend for many years. You were always the coolest and most laid-back person in the world. Whoever knew you definitely would agree. You will be missed on Hall St., throughout the south side and the city. You gave me a chance to cut your hair when I was only 12 or 13 years old. You would encourage me and give me tips on what to do to give you that perfect crisp haircut. Much love ACE.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family. Darrell was a friend and brother beloved. He was always willing to lend a helping hand wherever he could. He will miss him very much. As I bid my friend farewell, my prayer is that God will comfort and strengthen the members of the Antione Family. Cast your cares upon him, for he care th for you. I thank God for allowing our paths to cross, and I'm the better because Darrell mpassed this way.
