“ I met Rev. Jefferson after Katrina, when my family and I were attending Bellevue Street BC. The first thing I remember saying was MAN he can play!!! Lol. He was playing the organ and it took us back to our home church here in New Orleans. He helped me continue my piano lessons until I graduated and went to college. He was such a nice person!! Take your rest sir. May God forever bless your family.

“ Mrs Jefferson Mr Jefferson loved you so much. I remember you told me the story of how the two you came together. You were always the one in charge. He allowed you to be yourself in every thing you did. He Loved you for what you were His Lady, His Wife. His Love and sprit will always be with you. When some loves you their loving sprit Never leaves you. Thank you Minister Darry Jefferson for playing my Happy Birthday song in June 2017> I will always remember it. Love for the Jefferson's

“ Darryl, I am humbled that you allowed your brother Allen and I to be in your company these last few months of your journey. You've always been such a wonderful gentle spirit - before and during your illness. I have enormous respect for you Darryl and I am in such awe of your amazing faith in God. Thank you for inspiring me to pay more attention to what's really important in life. It has truly made me a better person. I know you're playing beautiful music for God's angels! Much love to you brother-in-law. -Stacey
