

Delia Lawson Rucker

February 18, 1927 - December 13, 2011

Delia M. Lawson-Rucker

February 18, 1927 – December 13, 2011

Washington, Louisiana

Family and friends of the town of Washington are mourning the loss of our beloved Delia Lawson-Rucker, age 84. Our social butterfly died on Tuesday morning at Heritage Manor Nursing Home in Opelousas. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at 10:00 A.M. Monday, December 19, 2011 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Washington, LA. Burial will be held in Cedar Hill Cemetery. Mrs. Rucker is survived by her children, three sons, Micheal Rucker (Estella), James “Chico” Rucker (Sherrell) and Juan Rucker (Gailen); a daughter, Rose Mary Porter (Gary) all of Houston, TX.; two sisters, Lydia Lawson Simmons of Washington, LA. and Catherine Lawson Jones of Opelousas, LA. and 10 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and special friends.

Mrs. Lawson was preceded in death by her parents, Isiaish & Emily Gauthier Lawson; a daughter, Vickie Moore; three brothers, Wally, Henry and Harold Lawson; two sisters, Anna Mae Richardson and Hazel Bozeman.

Visiting hours will be observed from 8:00 A.M. to 10:00 A.M. Monday, December 19, 2011 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Washington.

Share words of comfort with the Rucker & Lawson family at www.williamsfuneralhomes.net

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to Williams Funeral Home of Opelousas, 337-942-2037.

Tribute Wall

“ Delia Lawson Rucker

January 28, 2023 at 08:52 AM

“ With deepest sympathy to the family. Ms. Delia will always be remembered for her kindness and caring heart. I loved to hear her stories as a nurse at the hospital. Rest in peace.

Marian Jackson Scott - December 18, 2011 at 08:09 PM