“Denise and not only attended high school together we graduated from college together, pledged a sorority together, joined ROTC. But she did all these things I started but she finished. She was a very smart lady. I remember when my grandmother passed and she was driving me home from USL in her Volkswagen. She said “Inez your grandmother died not you, you are still living and you must continue to live your life. Your life hasn’t ended. And I just want to say to children, siblings, and husband. Take the advice she gave me. Yes grieve for awhile. But she would want you to continue to live your life.”

“Denise was a beautiful person who loved family. When I was becoming a young woman and beginning a family of my own she shared her wisdom with me about how wear the hat of being a woman and a mom. I never forgot what you shared Denise. I will not forget the kindness you showed me and the wisdom you shared. To the family I pray God's peace be upon you as you deal with her transition. May God bless you.
