

Ms. Desiree Lanaye "Desi" Boutte

January 17, 1994 - March 1, 2026

Funeral services for Desiree Lanaye Boutte, 32, will be held Saturday, March 14, 2026, at 11:00 a.m., within the comforting embrace of St. Paul Baptist Church. On Sunday, March 1, 2026, surrounded by love at Our Lady of Lourdes Regional Medical Center in Lafayette, LA, Desiree gently slipped into eternal rest, her journey on earth complete.

She will be laid to rest beneath the tranquil skies of Garden of Memory Cemetery, as Reverend Willie Maynard, Jr., Pastor of St. Paul Baptist Church guides us through a heartfelt Celebration of Life.

Desiree's spirit lives on in the tender hearts of her mother, Rachel Boutte of Opelousas, LA; her loving siblings, Edward "Lil Eddie" Boutte of Opelousas, Taylor Boutte of Lafayette, and Jasmine Boutte-Parish (RaeKelle) of Opelousas, and in the arms of countless relatives, cherished friends, and beloved ones who hold her memory close like a lantern against the night.

She now joins those who went before her—her father, Edward "Eddie" Boutte; sister, Christina Hunt; treasured grandparents, Delores M. C. Hunt, Nelma Boutte, and Roscoe Chenier; and great-grandparents and other ancestors—reunited in radiant peace.

Visitation for friends and family will take place on Saturday, March 14, 2026, from 8:00 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. at St. Paul Baptist Church, 1108 W. Bellevue St., Opelousas, LA 70570.

May words of comfort and memories of Desiree Lanaye Boutte be shared with her family via her Permanent Life Tribute Page at www.williamsfuneralhomes.net. Let all whose lives she touched join in weaving together stories, photos, messages, or videos—a tapestry of tribute celebrating Desiree's light and legacy. Her memory, precious and enduring, will be passed down through generations, forever echoing the love she so freely gave as "Desi."

“ OMG! Desiree was one of my 7th grade Math students at Opelousas Jr. High. Her parents and my family sang in the 7th District Choir. Dad and I sang bass. Desiree was a quiet student in my class and always stayed on top of her work. I am truly going to miss running into her at Wal-Mart and seeing her smile. I pray for strength for her family, friends, and all of us who knew her! May God Bless us all and keep us.
