“ *To the family and friends of Mr. Morris.
My condolences at this very difficult time. Death is certainly an enemy will all face. May the comfort from God found in the scriptures grant you a measure of peace at this time. John 5:28, 29 assures us that "those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out".
We can find much comfort in Gods Word. May you be comforted as you deal with this most trying circumstance.*
