“ Sending my heartfelt prayers and sincere condolences to his wife, parents, siblings and family. Edmond never met a stranger! When he walked on any school campus, he brought sunshine, laughter and his bright smile. He was always willing to help and teach you a few tips of his dynamic trade as a “techie”. I learned the art of troubleshooting from him! He was always so helpful to others. Every time he walked on campus, and saw me he would say, “Steve!”, and I would say, “Mike, Larry, Moe, Jerry Curly. . !” (This was an old inside joke, LOL) We would start laughing and then, regroup, and then back to business!! Edmond, you will be greatly missed by so many in our SLP School District. May You Rest In Peace and Power!

“ I met Edmond in college and if not for him I wouldn't have graduated. Every Mon-Thurs for 2 years we spent 4 hours in class (had all the same classes) and then a couple hours after class he would chill with me and my wife. We would talk about school, life, our futures and pasts but because of Edmond's amazing energetic personality we were never bored. It's been a while since I thought of those nights but now I would do anything to have just 1 more. He made me and everyone he ever talked to better people, hell my kids still call him Uncle E. almost 20 years later. I will remember him the only way I can, as a brother. Rest well in peace till next we meet

“ Edmond was such a great guy!! He would light up any room that he was in. His signature phrase every time he walked into Palmetto Elementary was, “What’s up Kell? When are you going to put Dr. Pepper in the vending machine?” Such a tragic loss.

“ Where do I begin???. 💔💔💔. The kindest, most personable, jolly, even tempered, knowledgeable, etc. person that I have ever met. I, like a lot of other people, met Edmond through the school board. The first time meeting him, I felt I had known him all of my life. When I would hear his voice in the halls of the office where I worked my day was complete because I know I was gonna have a good laugh and good conversation, while at the same time he was taking care of the work he came to do. He always knew what drawer of my desk held the goodies. He was like my little brother. When Covid came and shut down our office I wondered if I would ever see him again. Then, one day my daughter and I drove up to Lowes and he and his wife (who he adored) were coming out of the store. The joy I felt to see him is indescribable. I was seeing my long lost friend again. I will forever miss but also remember that infectious laugh, the funny stories, and him - Edmond. Go on and get your rest my friend. God will have some good laughs. To his parents, and wife, siblings, you have my deepest condolences. Your son, husband and brother was a jewel. Rest Easy Edmond.

“ Though SLP I met Edmond, like everyone else did He walked into the classroom, gave you the look of "I'm here, where's the issue?" and sat down and fixed it. In addition to thanks, he received that coveted cold drink and a small chocolate reserved for the best answer in class. I had him on speed dial and text for any and all tech questions. He stopped responding right away and let me figure it out :) Then he'd simply say "Ok" when I said I figured it out. That was our last exchange Friday. . . He will be and is greatly missed by so many - that laugh, the stories, the looks, the smile for treats we all saved just for him. Kimberlee, you have my sincerest condolences.

As a former co worker with Edmund at SLPSB, I was shocked to receive the news. May God continue to shower His blessings on the family. Worked with his dad many years @ Ford & Joseph fh..feeling as part of the family. Edmund has gained his wings for jobs well done. Many times I had to call him to come to my office to see what I had "messed up" on my computer. He would say, "what you done messed up now, Mrs. Ester?"with a grin.. Would take a seat & quickly put me back in business. Very mannerable. May he rest in peace.

“ We all have made reservations to some cemetery without the privilege of cancellation. GOD is taking us away one by one. Edmond was a legend in this community and for St. Landry Parish School System. He never complained about anything. He always had a smile on his face and made you laugh no matter what. He was very knowledgeable of his profession of computer software etc. We all called him for our issues and he solved them, but on May 22, 2022 God called him to rest from his labor down here. We all loved you and we are definitely going to miss you, but God loved you best. Family you have my deepest sympathy and prayers. Charles Johnson
