“ Even though its been two years I will always love you no matter what you are my angel that watches me day and night. You raised me my whole life and thank you for your time and the wonderful years we had with you. There and some memories that will always last in my heart. I am finally doing college work and I do love it. So I love you so much and you rest up in heaven . I will see you when I 75. Ok Love you Daddy

“ It doesn't seem real that you have gone on ahead of us to walk the fields of gold. I am glad to have been able to see and love you each and every day. Thanks for all the love and support and grounding me in my faith. I know there is an Almighty God who is compassionate and just as though we wanted you here with us he wanted you forever more. Rest easy my loving father and know that I will take care of momma just like you asked and I can only hope that we will make you proud. Love always your baby girl, Jessica and the grandkids.
