It is with heart-felt sympathy as I learned of the passing of Eldritch. I will always remember him as fast-talking Eldrich with a smile that would light up the world. My deepest condolences goes out to the family in which I am an extended part of. Family you have endured a great deal of loss in such a short period of time but take comfort in knowing that where he is going there is no more sickness nor pain. He is in the loving arms of JESUS. Eldritch take your rest until that Great getting up morning when all of God's children will get together. Shelia C. Turner
