She enjoyed taking long walks with them, rocking in her favorite recliner chair, talking, watching television, and touring various points of interest in Los Angeles.

Elnora was a devoted member of Mohorn Baptist Church for over 50 years. She served as a "Deaconess" for the church. Elnora was very religious and in the past, together with her husband, held prayer services at their home with other members of the church. She was also a compassionate and considerate person who always helped others in need.

Elnora is survived by one daughter, Elrose Roberts (Ivory) of Walnut, CA, one son, Shelton Lee Dominick of Opelousas, LA., and one granddaughter Roshelle Carter (Kyle) of Lafayette, LA.
