“ I miss her so much. When I visited home last year, the one person I was most happy to see was my Auntie Elouise. She was always so present in my life growing up. So helpful to my momma and family. I love you so much Aunt Ella and I will never forget you.

“ May The Spirit of The Lord rest upon you like this Dove, Versie lee, and your family during this saddened time of loss of your Beautiful Mother. Mrs. Elouise and Mr. Clay were neighbors to us as well, and very very close friends to my parents, Mr. & Mrs. Adam(A'don) Rideaux. I can remember the days like it was today, the laughter of jokes and good ole' times, under the "china-ball tree", as they would gather and sit and have a grand time. Now, surprisedly to say, they are ALL joined together, Mom and Dad, Clay and Elouise, Lester and Jeane, Charles and Margie, Mr & Mrs. Carlton Sam and at Heaven's Home, still with laughter and rejoicing!!!! Hallelujah!!!! My prayers are with you all!

“ My Godmother was my hero as she saved me from my mom's whippings so many times . Even though as a child in those days I probably deserved it. As an adult I am grateful for all lessons she taught me but I now realize that memory as I sit and read about a king like she was my queen spreading undeserved love to all in need. Thanks Godmother I cherished the most precious gift of all when u gave me "Jesus"
