“ To the family that will browse this thereafter. I am so happy a couple years ago you Elroy & I got a chance to reconnect. You never know when you're going to see or not see one another again but, we clung onto each other trying to catch up.

To the family. My sincere condolences. Your mom & I grew up together & had children's the same age so that mean I've been around before you were born. This loss of course is heaven gain. This is a late memory but, to the remaining sibling & family my heartfelt condolences. Elroy never forgot laughter on his journey. And it was so good to see him..now it's time to rest Elroy for you fought a great fight & stayed on the course. Gone but never forgotten.

“ My condolences to Elroy's family. As kids we played together and grew into adults. I had an opportunity to speak with you at our niece and nephew wedding a few years back. You hadn't changed one bit still laughing, happy, and speaking truth. Same as when we were kids. Take your rest friend we will see you again in that great getting up morning.

“ Wow....I have wonderful memories, childhood memories of us ALL growing up together, before I left. But, even though it had been quite sometime since I'd seen or spoken with you, the love in my heart still stands. Fly high my friend.....fly high!!!! 🙏❤️😊. GOD'S mercy and peace that only HE can give, be with the family at this most difficult time. 🙏❤️
