“ To Van and the gang! I was sadden by the news of the passing of a Gentle giant in the gospel, song and worship. I remember visiting with you guys as we prepared for evening service for a Woman's Cry at your church. The laughter we shared as we tarried there will never be removed from my memory. I love your mother in life and I celebrate her legacy in death. For earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal. May your heart find comfort and peace in your hour of bereavement you See you soon! “ To my "extended" Sister: "Van"
I know that seemingly your hurt will never cease, but we know that our God will sustain both you and your siblings (Cheryl, Greg, Irene & brother-in-law, Mark). Though your days may seem dark right now, and you are yearning for peace. Lean on the Lord; for we know that light "does shine" through the darkness and HE will give you comfort and peace.
Praying your strength...
