Precious Father,

There's such comfort in knowing You draw closest when our hearts are most broken. Thank You for catching every tear, for sitting with me in the raw moments when words fail and pain feels overwhelming. When grief weighs heavy, help me remember You're not waiting for me to "be strong"—You're already here, holding every piece of my shattered heart.

Thank You that I can come to You exactly as I am, with all my questions and aches. Wrap me in Your tender comfort, whisper Your love into my deepest hurts. Transform these tears into testimony, not by rushing past the pain, but by walking through it with me.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Rest with Jesus my dear friend Cola.
