“ I remember when I was a little girl, with big sister; we came to see them, my mother's uncle Ernest and aunt Marie. I think my father was there to because we were outside and he was showing my parents some horses he had and some other animals there. I just remember that was my first real time seeing him and my aunt. And I wanted to go back to his house just to see those animals but my mother didn't real travel that much without my father driving her. ~ I much later knew him for his Knowledge, wise words, he didn't say a lot words but when he spoke to you about something or anything, it enlightening. ~ He was a strong man for his principal, kindness, faith in God and in the church, and he kept moving, visiting others even when he also had health problems. I really will miss him and i miss my aunt.
