“ To the family, I can't even begin to express the great times I spent as a caregiver and friend to mama, 4 years of my life were spent with this great friend and teacher. She laughed with me, cried with me, comforted me when I was down and laid it on me when I made her angry. lol I thank you all for giving her to me for those times. I know I left her early but the Love stayed in my heart and hers. Until we meet again my sweet mama. Luv ya Faye

“ To the Monroe Family
I can't image what you're feeling, but I share your loss and I extend my deepest sympathy. You mom never hesitated to express her deep love and caring for me and I will cherish those memories for the rest of my life. She will be a part of my heart forever. I can still remember from a long time ago being a very young girl when she gave me a gift, a fruit stack; and up to this very day in my house, it still sits as a centerpiece on my snack bar. I will always share with you your love for your mom and I will miss her dearly also.
