“ *Dear auntie Evelyn,
I love and miss you & Uncle Jr. dearly. Every time me and my grandmother would come to your house you would always have somethings positive to say to us to keep our head up. You always took care of others, your grandchildren, children, nieces, and nephews. I send love to you and Uncle Jr. up there In heaven.*

“ Very much missed, my daily calls and visits are over. I stay busy during the day to keep my thoughts on the here and now but at night when it's quiet and I'm alone I can't help but to think of her and how wonderful she was. I loved her through everything. I will always love her. She has eternal peace now and I know she's walking around heaven with all our love ones that have passed on before her. You left this world but you will never leave my thoughts. Yours suffering is over. Fly high mother, we will meet again.

“ Evelyn was more than a sister-in-law and friend. She was my spiritual adviser. She was the glue that held everything together for her children, grandchildren, family and friends. There were many (and I use that term lightly) "many " times that I couldn't depend on other family members and she never denied me of anything I needed. Whether it was advice or correction; She gave me the best advice. She gave me the path to follow that was the right way for me. I will always cherish her ! Not as my brothers' wife, not as my sister-law but as my spiritual animal...A "Dove". My memory of her life will someday be my testimony. May her journey to heaven be restful and peaceful. May our God grant her with his unconditional grace and mercy. God bless our world and nation.

My Lord,

Thank you for your grace and mercy!
