“ After reading about your recent loss of Mrs. Evlin, I would like to send my deepest condolences to the Robertson family. I am so sorry that I missed the services. If I would have known earlier I would have been there. I am also moved to write you a message of comfort and hope. God has made the loving provision for a resurrection, so that you can see Mrs. Evlin happy and healthy again. You can read about this hope that Jesus talked about at John Chapter 5:28-29 in your Holy Bible.

“ To the family of Mrs Robertson, I was very saddened to have read the passing of your mother. I really enjoyed her as a friend and her wisdom as a mother. She was one of my dear hair patrons for a long time when I lived in Port Barre. I send my deepest and most sincere condolences to you all. There is a saying, "Walk a mile in my shoes, see what I see, hear what I hear, and feel what I feel, then maybe you'll understand". I do understand, for I have walked in those same shoes, and I have seen the same, heard the same, and felt the same, in the passing of my mother, and I can say this to you, Beverly, Obie, Connie and Bonnie that it really holds true, when The Word of The Lord says, "Weeping may endure for the night, but Joy cometh in the morning"..GOD WILL give you all beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, In The Name of Jesus I pray God's Grace and Mercy covers each of you during your time of bereavement.
Lillian
