“ To the family and friends of Floyd. As difficult as it is we must still give thanks to Gods for allowing Floyd to be a part of each of our life's. I had the pleasure of working with Floyd in his last career and while training him he appeared to me, as an individual who would have soared. He cared deeply about his work and wanting to make sure it was right. He often stuck his head into my office to say how did I do and am I doing ok. And sometimes just to say hi. I will miss his wonderful smile and warm personality. May God bless his family and know that in his word he said, that weeping may cometh in the night but joy cometh in the morning. Hold on to God's word.

Floyd may your soul rest in peace son!

“ There are many people whom we pass, encounter, embrace, and learn from in this journey called "Life". Some people teach us, help us, and sometimes inspire us. Floyd was one of the persons who did all of these things in such a short period of time. He was always kind, respectful, thoughtful, and exemplified the true values. I thank God for the honor and privilege of meeting you Floyd because you taught me no matter surrounds you in this life be it good or bad; you can always overcome it, and in a manner that represents Christ and His love. RIP.

“ Floyd, my heart sink when I read the obituary of this young man was your son. I didn't know your children, but you are like my "big brother" and I know the pain of your loss is great...BUT GOD IS GREATER AND BIGGER than any situation or circumstances we may face! I pray God's Tender Mercies which is renewed unto you daily, His Amazing Grace that is sufficient enough for you, and His Agape Love that never cease or change for you cover your mind, soul, and spirit and keep you in His Perfect Peace throughout this time of Bereavement!!!

To you, your family, his mom and her family and all other who grieves during the loss of a son, brother, nephew, grandson, in-law, cousin or friend, I send my condolences and prayer to you all, In The Name Of Jesus!

“ Hello Family of Floydderrick Johnson, I would like for you to know my prayers are with you all at this time. We truly know, our God doesn't make any mistakes. Keep the strength and faith to your loss. I will truly miss him, I wait for him to enter the doors at work every morning to get our comedy workshop started for the day. I didn't realize the doors would close so sudden, where I wouldn't have him any longer at the job to make my day. I must say, I enjoyed the short period of time knowing him, with what GOD allowed for me.

Greatly Missed,
Cynthia
