“ Mr Frank you was a good man. I appreciate what you did for me by bringing your tractor and cleaning up the property for me to move my trailer on when I moved back to Melville. You did a great job and I couldn't thank you enough. May God Bless your soul. I hope God gives you a very special place in heaven. Rest in Peace Mr Frank.

“ Well Uncle Frank you made it to the upper room before me. We grew up playing tractors under the house and you getting me in trouble over those pink rollers!!! We shared a lot and even though we were uncle and nephew, it was kinda like you were my big brother. You even gave me my nickname!!! I always looked up to you....admired and respected you. I was humbled when you told me I had gained your respect as a man. I'll always miss you but I'll make sure to remember all of the good that you taught me. Guess you will listen to me preach every Sunday now. I miss you but I know you are having fun in the upper room. Love you always....Birddog
