“ When a loved one fall asleep in death, the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such times, may you find comfort from God’s Word. “Blessed be the God (Psalm 83:18) and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God” 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4. “ My sincere condolences to the family of George Fisher. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) While grief at the loss of George is great, joy at welcoming him back in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;42) With deepest sympathy,

“ To George's family I send my most sincere condolences. I am saddened to learn of George's death. I knew George as a reporter for the Daily World and found him to be a gentle soul and good person. That he exercised the courage of conviction is well know through his activism. I shall always remember him with respect.
Yours truly, Jacqui Cochran
