“ *To the Taylor family,
Weeping may endure for a night, but JOY comes in the morning.
My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief.*

Michelle Vickers - August 07, 2013 at 02:38 PM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. God's word the bible is a true source of comfort. All his promises will soon be realized. One of many of his promises is Revelation 21:4,5-He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Verse 5- And the One seated on the throne said: "Look! I am making all things new." Also, he says: "Write because these words faithful and true." Another promise, Acts 24:15-there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. I hope God's guaranteed promises console you the same way it has for me.

“ Sandy, I am so sorry to hear about your father's passing. Please accept my deepest sympathy. I am leaving for Virginia today so will be unable to attend his service. It is tough to lose your parent and I'll be praying for you and your family during this difficult time.
