“ Glo, Glo, Glo...Oh what a joy it has always been to greet you! We grew up together, sharing many laughs and tears! Being related just made our relationship that much better. Your children loved and adored you...and knowing them has been wonderful for me. Take your deserved rest, and I look forward to meeting you again...Glo, Glo, Glo!!!

“ Wow when i received the sad news on Sat, Nov 18th i was lost for words. Ms. Glo, a true Diva gone on to Glory. You have been there for me far as i can remember, you were strict but firm and loved everyone who knew you. I am sad but I know you are in good hands in heaven and in a better place, no more suffering. Love you so much.

“ I was sadden by news that you transition from earth to glory! You were always kind in so many ways. Just the thought of you gone leaves so many lonely. One day we shall be caught up and our transition too will be made. Rest on my friend and in that great getting up fare ye well, fare ye well!

I cant say good-bye...but see you later... You was not just my sister...but also my buddy...you fussed at me and I knew I had to take it...after all I couldn't dis-respect you...since you were older than I...I smile to see you in white...going home to lay for awhile until the return of OUR LORD..."To die in Christ is to live Again"...Rest now..rest...one day...soon you shall awake...and stand in front of the Master... The pearly gates shall open up...and the Lord God shall tell you.."Well done...well done my good and faithful servant...and the angels shall open the gates and let you in... This is the good news....For now I hold every special memories dear to my heart... Thank you for all you done for me and my kids...and most of all I thank you for believing in my calling...You were at all my events...and that showed me love...See you later Sis....
