“ There isn't to many words of comfort in times like this. I know your pain because I have walk that same path. But remember this, the angle of God came unto her and ask for one of the members of the family and she said unto the angle, take me I am ready to see my God, leave my family to be I love them and I'll go with you to see my Lord and Savior. That a moma's love for her family.
